Foreword

We hope that in this edition we have recorded the achievements of our high school careers. In years to come, when the responsibilities of life have dimmed the future and summoned us to recollection, we may retrace our steps to the high school days and friends that have gradually faded from memory.

I hope
I have you in some of my classes next year

Superintendent's Message

Every boy and girl must have the best educational opportunities to develop the means whereby he may carry out satisfactorily his social and political obligations in society. The axiom that whatsoever men, or nations, sow, that shall they also reap we believe is applicable to our local educational system.

We are grateful to our teachers here at Shawano High School for lessons never listed on a program or required for graduation and for the outflow and overflow of personality. The truth is that character is seldom promoted by a direct attack; it is too subtle and too inward to be developed by lectures or council. We do not become honest through lectures on honesty, or courageous by electing a course in courage. Character is a great stream of devotion to one's work, self-sacrifice and high endeavor in a continuous stream of self-denial throughout the course of life and that stream is fed by personalities contacted many times in most unsuspecting situations.

We hope that the Shawano High School graduating class of 1935 will carry with it some contribution discovered or absorbed here in the four years of that preparation which leads to a greater and happier and a more complete life.

We've an Indian name.
We have Indian fame,
 We have scalps three score and ten.
When our tom-toms beat,
They taboo defeat,
 For our Indian braves are men.
We have blazed a trail,
That can never fail,
 See our torches burning ever high.
By the Indian light,
See the Indian fight,
 Hear our curdling Shawnee cry!

Class Will

We, the seniors of Shawano High School, fully aware that we must now depart from this vale of tears, make known in this document the provisions of our will:

To the faculty we leave our sympathy for knowing the lower classmen as we do. We are sure they will need it.

To the juniors we leave our dignity, but even though we leave them a large amount, we fear it will not be sufficient.

The sophomores we leave with a smile. Remember when they were freshmen?

To the freshmen we leave the hope that they will realize they are no longer freshmen, and act accordingly.

Violet Morton leaves her sex appeal to Charlotte Regling, feeling Charlotte needs it more than she.

Ray Schuster leaves the top of his finger in the Manual Art's Lab.

Elizabeth GruWell leaves her lovable curves to Doris Dallman.

We are sorry to say that Ann Ninman is saving her tongue for a future anchor.

Leo Maxson leaves a tooth on the locker room floor.

Inez Kuckuk leaves her demureness to any freshman who will promise not to abuse it. Don't crowd.

Wally Smith leaves his shyness and quiet ways to Ace Meifert, with the hope that they will have a beneficial effect.

Lula Strauss leaves her ability to write limericks to the junior class in general. Guard it well, you'll need it for English next year.

Andy Dowling leaves his vocabulary to Mr. Coe.

June Fink leaves, for some young Romeo's scrapbook, a lock of her blonde wool.

Helmuth Lautenschlager leaves to the showcase his pipe, in which he has smoked one can of tobacco, and used six cartons of matches.

Frances Brunner leaves her personality and a few extra credits to Bernice Huebner, who is sadly in need of both.

Eugene Brodhagen leaves some of his size to be divided between Merlin Sousek and Jerome Worden.

Lucille Steffin leaves her red locks to a certain freshman, whose attempt at auburn curls is pitiful.

Franklin Strauss leaves his uncertain love to a certain burnette. Thank goodness that is settled.

Eileen Schmidt leaves her gum on the bottom of her desk to whoever occupies it next year.

Milton Koeller leaves the smell of exhaust in the high school atmosphere.

We regret to say that Clara Schiel is taking her ear-rings with her.

Wally Plischke leaves his fondness for lemonade to Lester Labutzke.

In witness whereof we hereunto affix our seal.

Class Prophecy

There were only four minutes left to play, and the score was 14-13 in the opponent's favor. Shawano just had to win this game, and the fellows, led on by the cheering of the crowd, were trying their best, but all play seemed to fail. This time they tried a pass. Signals were given, the ball snapped into play; the halfback had gone back to get off a long one, now the ball was floating through the air, and there was Willie Schroeder running down the field. He just had to complete this one, and besides, there was Katherine Hoffman, jumping up and down in excitement.

Boy, what a new flow of energy went through his body! ! ! Metcalfe, himself, couldn't catch him now. The ball settled safely into his arms. What a roar came from the crowd,—and to think they were all cheering for him! ! ! He wondered if Katherine was still looking—he'd risk a glance at her, it would be worth it. Yes, there she was, and watching him too! Then suddenly something hit him and all went black.

Soon he felt a cool ice pack on his head. Slowly he opened his eyes, and there, to his amazement, stood Inez Kuckuk, who was now head surgeon at the hospital, and at her side stood Audrey Becker, her assistant. No bones were found broken, but poor Willie was badly shaken, and ordered to remain here in this hospital for at least a week. To him this was bad news, and secretly he planned his escape. The next morning he awoke at three. Thinking this was the time for his escape, he quickly slipped into some clothes, opened the door of his room, and proceeded down the hall. From one of the rooms came an awful noise, but it sounded familiar. He stopped. Then suddenly he recognized the snoring of Carl Hoppe, which used to predominate above the noise in the main-room during Carl's free periods. As every second counted, he proceeded on his way, and in his haste he stumbled over some pails and brooms which had been carelessly left there by the scrubwoman—Helen Ludolph! ! ! He picked himself up from among this debris, and gained his exit in a hurry. He hailed a taxi; there sat Ray Schuster behind the wheel. Each was so glad to see the other that the reminiscing continued far, far into the day. Willie learned that Violet Morton was now famous for her scarf dance (minus the scarf), and that Wallace Wasserman and "Kip" Ramlow were contesting for the air's perfect crooner. At this point, Ray turned on the radio in his cab and soon they heard the voices of the three little debutantes, Harriet Jaeger, Elizabeth GruWell, and Claire Schiel—being supported by Arthur Klebasadel's recording orchestra. This program was interrupted by a police call regarding public enemy No. 1—Fritz Nachtway.

Willie was also surprised to hear that Lucille Duebler was manager of the largest Orphan Asylum in the United States; that Ties Ainsworth held the world's record for having seven marriages and seven divorces, and that Eileen Schmidt and Kenny Sumnicht were professors of chemistry and mathematics, respectively, at Gresham University. On the billboards beside the road, they noticed the announcements of the bout between John Bratz and Andy Dowling for the world's heavyweight champion in boxing, and the running for governess of Lorraine Katzenmeyer. "Willie" couldn't believe that "Wally" Plischke was at the head of a large anti-liquor campaign, but he could realize why there were no profits in the operation of a brewery by "Ray" Schoenick and "Orve" Teetzen. George Achten and Elaine Barker were the comedians in the latest comedies: Lautenschlager and Kammerman were attorneys at law, and the "Do You Wanno Buy a Duck?" salesmanship was being handled by Bud Boyle.

So interested were Ray and Willie, that they failed to notice the fire truck speeding toward them—Bang! ! ! The two collided! ! ! Willie felt the water from an extinguisher trickle down his neck. He opened his eyes, and there was Gharrity throwing cold water on him, while Katherine stood on the sidelines nervously biting her fingernails.

Class Histories

SENIOR

Only four short years ago 122 now dignified seniors entered high school. During the years we set up records that remain to be surpassed. Now as seniors we find ourselves leaving in a class that any member can be proud of.

Our athletic representatives in football were Eddie Achten, Eugene Brod-hagen, Red Derr, Art Herman, Royal Meyers, Lester Radtke, and Willie Schroeder.

In basketball, Eddie Achten, Willie Schroeder, and Lefty Zingler proved most valuable to the squad.

Florence Ainsworth, Helen Ludolph, Jane Chaimson, Evelyn Soyck, Kenneth Sumnicht, Allan Druckrey, Robert Lindroth, and Wally Smith lead the class in forensics.

Our one consolation is that the class of 1935 has contributed enormously to the Shawano High School.

JUNIOR

Inspired by preceeding students, the members of the present junior class displayed their abilities in many scholastic enterprises.

The call of the gridiron was answered by many, Henry Alheiser, Fritz Berndt, Orville Hull, Thomas Jansan, Ray Jorgenson, Paul Kosbob, Rush Niles, Algier Tucker, and Harold Wruck being lettermen.

A large number responded for basketball work including Carl Steffin, Harold Wruck, Rush Niles, and Otto and Anton Anderson who made the first squad.

Forensic representatives from this class were Lucille Acord, Madeline Walters, Dorothy Gauthier, Arnold Felton, and Jorden Debban.

During their senior year they are expected to obtain more honors for the black and maroon.

SOPHOMORE

The past year has done much to bring out the sterling qualities in many of our sophomores.

Pershing Oshkosh and Ernest Baumgarten were lettermen in football, but many others saw action on the gridiron.

A successful basketball team of sophomores was organized.

Jeanette Greb, Catherine Heinz, Delores Keshena, Ethel Hickenbotham, Marvin Steinke, Woody Marciel, and Ruben Schmidt shared honors in forensics.

On the day of its graduation, this class too, will be a credit to Shawano High School.

FRESHMEN

The green that was so evident in September, is gradually wearing off. When it is entirely extinct, they hope to have revealed many great people who are now among them.

The frosh had a successful football team consisting of Burton Doan, James Barker, Ora Meyers, Donald Robins, Floyd Meyers, Myron Gueller, George Bowan, Roy Jesse, Vernon Knope, and Charles Ramlow.

On the basketball floor Alfred Hartman, Charles Ramlow, James Barker, John Reed, and Burton Doan deserve credit.

Crystal Wege, Harriet McBride, Clara Koonz, Arthur Gast, Keith Baumeister, Merlin Sousek, and Charles Ramlow represented the class in forensics.

They have the possibilities that can make Shawano High School remain a school of high rating and recommendable learning.

Let's stop worrying and do some studying for a change. Hoping I can be your partner next year.
 Luck, love and success

On a pleasant September morning, twenty-five gay and boisterous students entered the domain of Miss McGill, student teacher instructor.

Gradually we separated work and play. The boys had a basketball team which created a new record of the games won in the training department. The girls, too, had a basketball team, but were not as fortunate as the boys in the number of games won.

Our parties were always well attended and every one of the student teachers reflects with a smile of satisfaction upon the good times.

We were very enthusiastic about the Demonstration Room. This was a typical rural school. Thanks to the class of 1934, the furniture and the room displayed new paint and many attractive additions.

At the commencement of the second semester we went into the rural school to do one week of rural observation and one successful week of practice teaching.

To earn credits for our community projects, permission was gotten from a local theatre manager, for the student teachers to plan and organize the campaign for a show. The program was a huge success.

Thus the year comes to an end, and we will once more leave the Training School. New faces will take our places, but the memory will live forever.

In order that the various problems, for which the group has not time, or would not be able to do in class, may be studied, a chemistry club was organized by Mr. Thomas.

An initiation party was held, and at other meetings various interesting experiments were performed and scientific problems discussed.

This number of students met every other week, and several trips were taken to local industrial plants.

The Pep Club is one of the newer organizations, founded in nineteen thirty-three.

Mr. Olson supervised the club this year, and much has been accomplished. He coached and developed some of the best cheerleaders we have had for several years, and must be given credit for installing more pep into the organization.

There are about two hundred students in the Pep Club whose purpose is to promote school spirit.

Debate

An activity should serve a large portion of the student body. Debate in most schools in a concentrated effort to develop merely the six members of the team. Debate in Shawano High School is designed to train as many students as are interested. At the beginning of the year seventy students reported for practice. After working six weeks this group was reduced to twenty-four. These people continued for six more weeks and then were divided into an "A" and "B" squad. In developing these squads, some eighteen practice debates were scheduled. Early in January the "B" squad closed its season by participating in the Northeastern Conference Tournament. This tournament was sponsored by our school and our teams won third place. The "A" squad entered the state debate finals, and went as far as the semi-finals before they were eliminated.

A select group of singers, both boys and girls, composed this year's glee club. There were about eighty members. The glee club met every day but Wednesday. Each member received one credit for glee club work.

Various numbers of the Christmas Masque were presented by the club, and this year the opera "Pinafore" was presented. Members of the club presented programs for various clubs of the city, and for our assemblies.

Mr. Baker, with the assistance of Miss Davidson and Mr. Schmidt directed a most successful group.

A "Bee" glee club was also organized and met with Mr. Schmidt. The assembly programs were so arranged that at least one day a week, each student participated in an assembly chorus.

THE SHAWANO HIGH SCHOOL ORCHESTRA

For the first time in a number of years, the interest in a school orchestra was recreated. They supplied the entertainment for a number of school dances. The high school orchestra was under the direction of Mr. F. A. Schmidt.

CHRISTMAS MASQUE

The Christmas Masque, written and directed by Superintendent O. A. Reetz was presented again this year just before Christmas. The former appearance was 1933 and the repetition was an excellent performance. The Masque was done by a series of scenes which translated the story from the first Christmas until the present Christmas. The select part of the Madonna was played by the school's popular choice, Mabel Riemer.

H. M. S. PINAFORE

The most artistic production of the year was given by the Shawano High School Glee Club when they presented the "H. M. S. Pinafore." The comic opera of two acts related the story of the lass who loved a sailor. It was rated the best performance ever given by the high school students, and five curtain calls verified the fact. Dr. Earl L. Baker directed and Miss Ruth Davidson and Mr. Frederick Schmidt were the assistant directors. Though Mr. Reetz sponsored many attractive and remarkable enterprises, this one will remain most memorable.

Alfred Tennyson Murgatoyd—the college poet	-	-	-	-	-	Wallace Wasserman
Church Mayo—Birdie's late affinity	-	-	-	-	-	Royal Meyer

TIME: the present, graduation time.

PLACE: living room in the bachelor apartment of Tom and Oke, in a college town.

SYNOPSIS:

It's too bad when a charming young man gets a girl thrown at his head until he's girl-shy. Yet here is handsome Tom Arsdale, graduating from college with the name of being a woman-hater. And what a contrast to his roommate, for Oke is faithful to more girls, one after the other, than any other man in college! Tom wishes he could shake off his shyness; he wishes he dared to meet the fascinating Bab Sanford he's heard so much about. He wishes—but then Tom hears she has sworn to meet him, and he just wants to crawl in a hole and pull the hole in after him.

Babs trades places with the attractive young lady who cleans Tom's apartment. Tom's father descends for graduation with his choice of a girl in town for Tom, and the marry-mix-up is on.

Contest Play

"The Boy Comes Home" by A. A. Millne was the selection presented this year by Shawano High School in the one-act play contest. The cast was:

Uncle	-	-	-	-	-	Kenneth Sumnicht
Aunt	-	-	-	-	-	Helen Ludolph
Phillip	-	-	-	-	-	Walter Smith
Mrs. Higgins	-	-	-	-	-	Jeannette Greb
Mary	-	-	-	-	-	Harriet McBride

The play is the story of a young man who returns to his Uncle's home in England after the war. Due to the changes the war has brought on his personality, he feels old enough to plan his own future. After a vivid dream in which the boy threatens his uncle with a gun, the uncle comes to the conclusion that the boy is old enough to plan his own future.

We competed with and lost to Oconto Falls who presented "Under-current." Oconto Falls later won the state contest. The judge was Miss Ley of Green Bay.

LOCAL CONTESTS

Extemporaneous Speaking

The local extemporaneous-speaking contest was held March 27, to determine who would represent Shawano at the State National Forensic Meet, held at Waukesha, and in the Wisconsin Forensic Association contest held at New London. The judges for this contest were Miss Mielke, Miss Meisewitz, and Samuel Chaimson. The places were awarded as follows:

- | | | | | | | | |
|---------------------|---|---|---|---|---|---|---------------------|
| 1. Walter Smith | - | - | - | - | - | - | "Gold Clause" |
| 2. Arnold Felten | - | - | - | - | - | - | "Young France" |
| 3. Fritz Eberlein | - | - | - | - | - | - | "Gold Clause" |
| 4. Madeline Walters | - | - | - | - | - | - | "Building Airships" |

Oratory

The same procedure was followed in determining our representatives in oratory, that contest being held March 29. The judges were Mr. Fischer, Mr. Andrews, and Mr. Stanley. The results in oratory were:

- | | | | | | | |
|---------------------|---|---|---|---|---|--|
| 1. Walter Smith | - | - | - | - | - | "The New Deal for the American Indian" |
| 2. Fritz Eberlein | - | - | - | - | - | "Wendall Phillips" |
| 3. Arnold Felten | - | - | - | - | - | "Creative Citizenship" |
| 4. Kenneth Sumnicht | - | - | - | - | - | "National Recovery of Character" |

Declamatory

As in previous years Shawano High School again won many honors with its declamations. Eleven students participated in the contest on March 26. The judges were Mrs. Ruprecht, Mrs. Czes Rheba, and Mrs. Schweers. Places were awarded to the following:

Humorous Declamations:

- | | | | | | | |
|---------------------|---|---|---|---|---|-------------------|
| 1. Dorothy Gauthier | - | - | - | - | - | "Good Bye Sister" |
| 2. Dorothy Peterson | - | - | - | - | - | "Brotherly Love" |

Dramatic Declamations:

- | | | | | | | |
|-------------------|---|---|---|---|---|-----------------------------------|
| 1. Jane Anderson | - | - | - | - | - | "Ashes of Roses" |
| 2. Jayne Chaimson | - | - | - | - | - | "The Doll in the Pink Silk Dress" |

The coaches were Miss Mielke and Mr. Olson, but the entire faculty deserves credit for its unceasing efforts in forensic work.

WAUKESHA CONTEST

Shawano sent ten members to represent our high school in the National Forensic Meet at Waukesha on April 3. Those representatives were Delores Keshena, Dorothy Peterson, Jane Anderson, Dorothy Gauthier, Jayne Chaimson, Madeline Walters, Robert Lindroth, Fritz Eberlein, Arnold Felten, and Walter Smith.

In order to reach the semi-finals, it was necessary to survive two preliminary rounds. In the finals, the following placed: Delores Keshena, fifth in original oratory; Arnold Felten, fourth in oratorical-declamation; and Walter Smith, first in extemporaneous-speaking.

NEW LONDON CONTEST

On April 11, New London sponsored a Wisconsin Forensic Meet. Shawano, naturally, was well represented. Our six contestants did exceptionally good work, and returned with the following places:

Oratory:

1. Fritz Eberlein
2. Walter Smith

Declamatory

1. Dorothy Gauthier

Extemporaneous-Speaking

1. Arnold Felten
2. Walter Smith

The first and second place winners are eligible to go on to the District Meet, and if successful there they will be eligible to enter the State Contest.

Balfour Award

By vote of the faculty of Shawano High School Bernard Derr was awarded the highest honor which can be conferred upon a student in this school. This award represents achievement, and that is exactly what brought the award to Bernard. He was considerably above average scholastically, a leader in class activities, and a leader in his choice of sports. Furthermore, he was looked up to by his classmates for his constructive influence so necessary in a group his age. Every boy who has ever been awarded the Balfour trophy has continued to lead his associates and to be considered by everyone a superior individual; and Bernard's teachers have reason to believe that he will not be the exception.

Balfour Award

BERNARD DERR

Legion Medal

WILLIAM SCHROEDER

Legion Medal

The American Legion medal awarded annually to the senior with the best record in athletics and in scholarship, was won by William Schroeder. "Willie" is the kind of an athlete we are proud to have picked as the best in the senior class. He is a midget physically but has courage and tenacity that has made him a valuable asset to Shawano High championships. He was a regular member of this year's championship basketball team and a letter winner on last year's second place team. He played football on the freshman, B, and varsity teams and starred at end this season. He is a member of the track team, specializing in the high jump and broad jump.

As a scholar he has made the honor roll consistently and ranks well up toward the top of his class.

"Willie" may well be proud of his achievement in winning this coveted Legion Award over such sterling athletes as Bernard Derr, Lester Radtke, Eugene Brodhagen, Victor Zingler and Royal Meyers, all of whom deserve honorable mention as athletes and scholars.

The American Legion stands for Americanism, which in the language of our youth, is the ability to play the game hard and clean and according to the rules. We are sure that William Schroeder will not fail to meet in life, as he has in athletics, the high standards of this fine organization.

Special Events

PROM

Our new gym was transformed into a scene depicting rain for the junior prom. Brightly colored spring flowers along a white picket-fence furnished the contrast to the cellophaned ceiling. The typical May scene was supported by a rainbow. The grand March was led by the prom king, Rush Niles, and his queen Mildred Meyer.

HOMECOMING

Homecoming! What a wealth of meaning in the word. It is breathing a thought of all that is worth while in high school life. To the alumni it meant old friends, old places and memories; to us, another great celebration worthy of mention. With excitement in the air, a huge snake dance, bonfire and a highly spirited student body, Shawano sponsored its most memorable homecoming. Only one thing put the damper on everything and that was the score of the game, but concluding with a dance in the evening, a most successful homecoming was recorded in the files of Shawano High School.

LYCEUMS

The Northwestern Assemblies and the University Extension presented a large number of entertaining assemblies. A variety of programs ranging from ventriloquism and black magic to musical selection of both voice and instruments proved most pleasing to the student body. To provide amusement for so large a group as our assemblies is a difficult task, but this school year was marked for its choice selections of entertainment. Among these were "Frances Sellers," "Stanley Brooks," "Gerald Giving," "Ambassador Quartette," "Zellner Lyceum," "Century Group," "Orphan Quartette," and "Dr. George Downs."

VARSITY SQUAD

COACH GHARRITY

A cheer from the students, the referee's whistle, the kickoff, the roar of the crowd, and another football season was started. During the year four victories, four losses, and one tied game were recorded.

Schroeder, Radtke, Krueger, Derr, Mahl, and Meyers will be missed next year, but the remaining players, and the excellent material from the last year's "B" squad will hold up the maroon and black, and capture all the honor and glory that is due the Shawano High School.

"B" TEAM

COACH BABINGTON

Resulting from this year's training, our next year's gridiron team is sure to be successful. Two victories and three losses were among their records.

Expedient coaching and hard fighting sportsmen compromised; the result was a prosperous termination of the enterprise.

FRESHMEN FOOTBALL

COACH SHEFFY

The freshmen squad, due to hard work, diligent coaching, and co-operation, recorded a successful term. The team recorded two victories, three losses, and one tied game.

This material promises a future successful varsity squad.

Football 1934

S.H.S. 7

PULASKI 0

Shawano blew the lead off the 1934 football season by defeating a strong Pulaski eleven. Although scoring only once, Shawano outplayed Pulaski throughout the game. The game was somewhat ragged due to fumbles and poor execution of plays, but S.H.S. earned a deserved victory.

S.H.S. 7

ANTIGO 0

After a week of intensive drill, Shawano met their first real test of gridiron strength. The game was featured by Niles's long kicks and the aggressive play of the Indian's forward wall. After a fiercely contested battle, Shawano emerged victoriously by a 7-0 count.

S.H.S. 0

MADISON EAST 35

Although being confident from two previous victories, Shawano suddenly "let up," and permitted the opponent's powerful offensive drive, until five touch downs and as many extra points had been scored.

S.H.S. 0

MENASHA 14

The first conference game proved a disappointment. We went down to a defeat from last year's champs by a 14-0 score. Penalties, totaling well near 100 yards, contributed much toward our loss.

S.H.S. 32

NEENAH 6

Radtke, behind beautiful interference furnished by his teammates, ran wild, and was a big factor in the 32-6 victory over Neenah. The team is going strong, and our hopes for a championship take a leap.

S.H.S. 13

KAUKAUNA 31

Kaukauna, Shawano's jinx, put the skids under the Indians and left us in the short end of a 31-13 score. Radtke again deserves the spotlight for his spectacular plays. Kaukauna received the ball on their four yard line on downs, and started an offensive drive which netted 18 points and which proved to be the margin of a victory.

S.H.S. 13

NEW LONDON 13

The Indians out played the New London team, but were tied 13-13 during the last thirty-five seconds of play on a field that was covered with two inches of wet clay.

During the last quarter, the Shawano line put in a brilliant defensive display, and blocked four successive New London kicks, two of which were converted into touchdowns by the local eleven.

S.H.S. 27

WEST DEPERE 7

By taking advantage of the breaks and by playing heads-up football, we defeated the Phantom 27-7. We scored early in the game on a series of line smashes after recovering a West De Pere fumble, and at later periods on blocked kicks and interrupted passes. Schroeder turned in a 90 yard dash which gave the opponents a run for their money and cost them the game.

OCONTO 25

Scoring twice in the last quarter on passes, Oconto overtook the 13-12 lead the Indians held and defeated our powerful team. Shawano led at the half and the homecoming victory seemed to be ours, but a let up in the last part of the game proved fatal.

Included in the lineup were these seniors who played their last game: Brod-hagen, Meyers, Schroeder, Derr, and Radtke.

Football Personnel

EDDIE ACHTEN End

Although "Ed" didn't play very often, he proved to be a real "scrapper." Another loss through graduation.

HENRY ALHEISER Half-back

Small but fast, Alheiser made up in fight what he lacked in weight. Good luck to you, Hank.

ERNEST BAUMGARTEN Half-back

"Ernie" was one of the shifتيest and cleverest backs on the squad. We are expecting a lot of him within the next two years.

FRITZ BERNDT Tackle

A big and powerful man. Berndt opened great holes in the opposing lines for the Shawano backs. Luck next year, "Fritz."

EUGENE BROADHAGEN Tackle

"Brodie" proved to be a bearcat on defense and a few yards were gained thru him.

RED DERR Fullback

Derr was handicapped by injuries part of the season. He played excell-ball when in the game, and managed to come out on top. Sorry to see you go, "Red." Derr was elected captain of the '34 squad.

ARTHUR HERMAN Guard

Until injured in the New London game, "Art" was one of the mainstays of the team.

ORVILLE HULL Guard

Hull, playing his first year on the varsity squad, proved to be a valuable man in the line-up. He should hold down his position in '35.

THOMAS JANNSAN Tackle

Jannsan was always "in the play" when in the game.

RAY JORGENSEN Center

"Jorgie" was a great defensive man and backed up the line especially well. We are glad to see he will return next fall.

PAUL KOSBOB Guard

Kosbob played a steady game and was in every play. A real "fighter." Paul should bolster the line a great deal next year.

ROYAL MEYERS End

"Mose" always gave the opponent plenty of trouble, being particularly adapted to snaring passes. Meyers also will be lost by graduation.

RUSH NILES Fullback

Rush was exceptionally good at distance punting and accurate passing. He should hold up the team considerably next fall.

PERSHING OSHKOSH Quarterback

"Pers" often got into the fray and always performed creditably. With two years ahead of him, he should carry his share of honors in football.

ROBERT OTTO Center

"Bob" played equally well both on defense and offense.

LESS RADTKE Halfback

The "speed demon." Radtke turned in some of the longest and most beautiful runs ever seen on the local gridiron. We regret he will not be back next year.

DONALD ROBBINS Halfback

The only frosh on the varsity proved to be one of the most promising. He alternated at half-back and full-back and showed up well at either position.

BILL SCHROEDER End

Bill proved a valuable asset to the team both on defensive and offensive. He played some great football and will be missed next year.

ALGIER TUCKER End

Tucker proved to be one of the squad's most vicious tacklers. Much is expected of him next year.

HAROLD WRUCK Quarterback

Open field running was Wruck's specialty. He should be a back-field main-stay next year.

Basketball Reserves

"B" TEAM

COACH BABINGTON

The fact that this team lost only a few of its games proves that its season was successful. A promise of another championship in basketball is assured by this first hand material for next season.

SOPHOMORE BASKETBALL

COACH SCHMIDT

As a whole the sophomore basketball season was regarded as a worth while project. Though they did not participate in as many games as did the "B" or Frosh basketeers, the experience gained will prove valuable.

FRESHMAN BASKETBALL

COACH SHEFFY

We are hoping this freshman team will fulfill our enthusiastic expectations. The many students that responded for this work showed the interest of the class in basketball. The boys helped in athletic entertainment by contesting in numerous preliminaries.

Standing: Coach M. P. Gharrity, O. Anderson, Wasserman, A. Anderson, Baumgarten, Wruck, Wirch, Manager.

Sitting: Niles, Zingler, Achten, Schroeder, Steffin.

Varsity Basketball

All previous basketball records of Shawano High School were shattered when our 1934-1935 squad had only one defeat in their entire season. This squad captured the championship in the Western Division of the North Eastern Conference. We defeated our rivals in skillfully and beautifully played contests.

The District Tournament was held at Clintonville on March 14, 15, and 16. Sturgeon Bay, Shawano, and Kewaunee, who took the first three places respectively, and Two Rivers, Menasha, Clintonville, New London, and Oconto were the teams that took part in the tournament. Although first in class, Shawano was forced to stop at second place. Our first victory was over Kewaunee, our second game was a defeat for Oconto, but at our third game we went down to defeat under the flashy playing of the Sturgeon Bay five.

Lefty Zingler, Willie Schroeder and Eddie Achten, who will be eliminated from next year's squad by graduation, and Lefty Steffin, Rush Niles, Ernie Baumgarten, and Anton and Otto Anderson composed our basketball team.

S.H.S. 47 TIGERTON 23

Willie Schroeder helped us open our season with a victory. We are assured that none can exceed us. Two complete teams were used, and both showed great prospects.

S.H.S. 23 ANTIGO 20

Lefty Zingler starred by helping keep the score close throughout the game. Here's hoping all the close games are in our favor. This second pre-conference game afforded a most exciting feat.

S.H.S. 20 APPLETON 21

Regardless of the good basketball played by the Anderson twins in one of the most sensational early season games ever to be played in the Shawano gym, Appleton emerged victoriously over Shawano. The margin of the victory was small that the outcome was in doubt until the final whistle. Shawano missed nine out of ten free throws. One other of these would have tied the game.

CONFERENCE

S.H.S. 26 MENASHA 19

Eddie Achten, leading our gang on offense by collecting eleven points, helped the black and maroon of Shawano to open their conference season with a deserved victory. At this game our defense was impregnable.

S.H.S. 42 NEW LONDON 21

Lefty Steffin, who alone scored 18 points, led the Indians in a spectacular victory over the New London cagers in the first home conference game of the season. We substituted freely in the latter stage of the game, due to the lop-sided score the regular five had assembled.

S.H.S. 15 STEVENS POINT 32

Regardless of Rush Niles' remarkable performance in this non-conference game, Shawano was completely outclassed. Playing anything but the brand of basketball formerly displayed, we just didn't click, and thus went down to a most disastrous defeat at the Point.

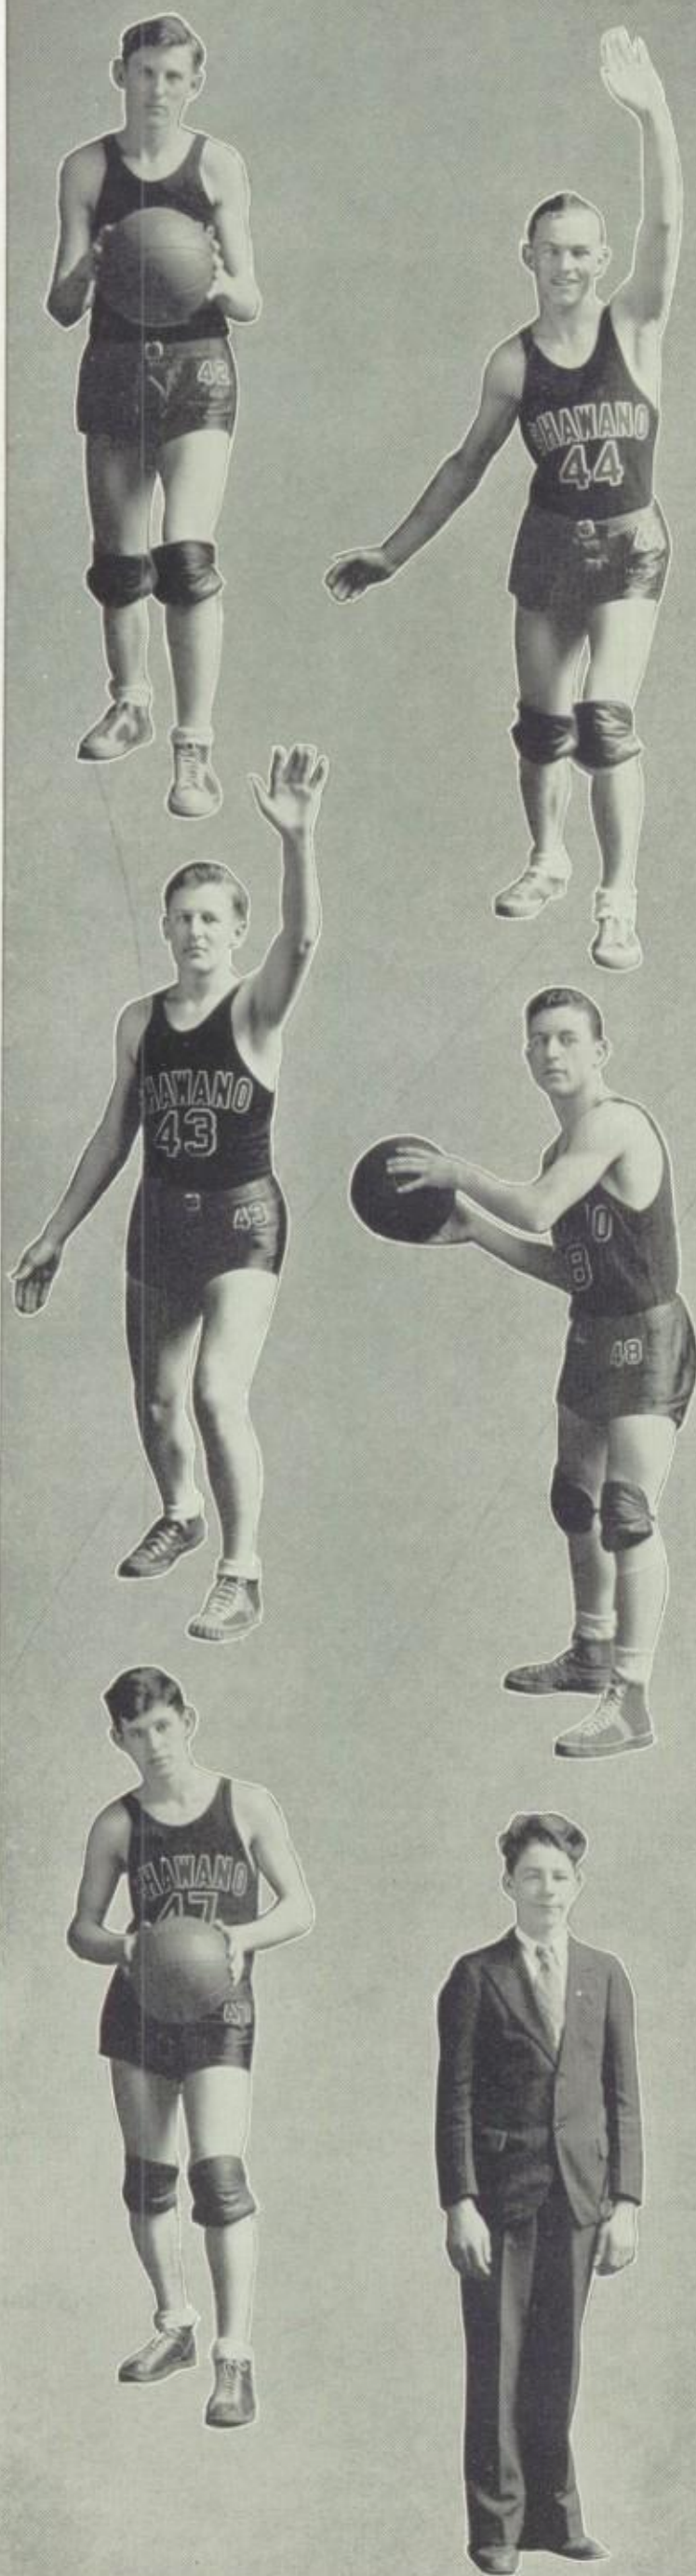

S.H.S. 24 EAST GREEN BAY 25

Though Eddie Achten captured the individual scoring honor, we were defeated in a spectacular one-point victory by the Red Devils. Two free-throws, made in the last 40 seconds of play, furnished the margin of victory.

S.H.S. 30 CLINTONVILLE 24

The two "Lefties," Zingler and Steffin, led our boys in an exceptionally fast and rough game with the Trucks in their city. This third straight conference win added to our growing string of victories.

OCONTO 25

Lefty Steffin set the scoring pace for the game with thirteen points. By gaining a ten-point lead early in the game, and continuing to hold their own, the Blue Devils upset the dope bucket by defeating the Shawano basketekers in a non-conference tilt.

S.H.S. 20

WEST DEPERE 14

Niles was the big offense star for the Indians as Shawano progressed in its quest for a championship by defeating the Black Phantoms in a convincing manner. Trailing at the half, our B.B. five came back to score nine points, and to remain the only team undefeated.

S.H.S. 32

OCONTO 15

Willie Schroeder led the locals in revenging a former defeat by Oconto. The Blue Devils had an off night and therefore proved to be weak competitors.

S.H.S. 30

KAUKAUNA 13

The shooting ability of Eddie Achten helped us beat Kaukauna by a large margin and thus another step in the conference title was taken.

S.H.S. 26

MENASHA 23

Lefty Steffin, scrappy forward, gathered 10 points to help us be the victors. This bitterly fought contest gave us our sixth straight conference win. Though Menasha rallied in the last minutes of play, they failed to lead at the end.

S.H.S. 18

NEENAH 14

Rush Niles staged a late rally to score four points and helped us eke out an 18-14 victory over fighting Neenah. In this crucial conference game, our defense, functioning perfectly, held Neenah to two field goals.

S.H.S. 23

NEW LONDON 15

Lefty Zingler became the hero of the hour when he helped us cinch the Championship crown of the Western Division of the N. E. Conference. We defeated the Bulldogs in a skillfully and beautifully played contest.

S.H.S. 26

CLINTONVILLE 15

Anton Anderson led in our whirlwind scoring attack which outdistanced the Trucks. The gym that made history sponsored this final basketball game, and our last basketball appearance was a victory.

S.H.S. 23

WEST DEPERE 26

Though Lefty Steffin led the Indians in outstanding plays, we suffered our one defeat of the year at this final contest. The game ended after two overtime periods, and each of our basketekers concluded the season with a stellar performance.

Tennis 1935

The 1934 tennis season, the second Shawano High School ever engaged in, began to take form early in April when Mr. Coe, tennis coach, issued a call for tennis team aspirants and announced the school tournament, which was to be held on April 19, 20 and 21.

The school tournament, conducted primarily for the purpose of pointing out the probably tennis team material, proved a big success. The tournament came to a fitting climax when Eddie Achten triumphed over Mark Hedges, pre-tournament favorite, 6-4, 6-0, in the final match to win the school championship. Achten forsook tennis for track, however, so was unable to aid the team in the meets.

The team picked by Mr. Coe to represent Shawano High in tennis, a comparatively new field of competition, included the following: Bill Eberlein, Louis Tobin, Gordon Haase, Winton Schumaker, Duane Schumaker, Bernard Derr, Arnold Felton, Ed Wagner, Lloyd Doran, Fritz Eberlein, and Anderson Dowling. Other fellows participated in some of the matches but failed to earn their letter.

The Black and Maroon racket wielders opened the season with a setback at the hands of the East Green Bay squad. Shawano then defeated Appleton but suffered another reversal at the hands of Neenah. In another closely contested battle the Appleton racketeers defeated the Shawano boys. We ended our season by winning the last two contests; defeating East Green Bay and reversing a former engagement with Neenah to defeat them.

On May 19, Mr. Coe took a picked squad to Neenah where he entered them in the Conference tournament. Shawano, although not winning the Conference championship, made a good showing by placing second. Neenah won the event with Menasha finishing third.

In the state tournament, also conducted at Neenah, Shawano was represented by Bill Eberlein in the singles and Winton Schumaker and Red Derr in the doubles. Eberlein was defeated in his first match and then eliminated by virtue of his defeat, Derr and Schumaker, in the doubles division were sent into the consolation bracket after being defeated by Milwaukee West. They then went on to defeat Wauwautosa and LaCrosse. In the semi-finals they were defeated.

Looking back on the season it can be considered a very successful one. In competition with some of the best tennis teams in the state Shawano won 3 and lost 3. On top of this they placed second in the conference meet and at the state meet, despite the fact they failed to reach the finals.

DISTRICT MAY 12 AT WISCONSIN RAPIDS

Berlin's team proved to be the heroes of the day by winning the district track meet by a score of 43. Shawano placed second with 37 points.

Augie Meifert, Shawano's speed merchant, won first place in the 440 yd. dash, and second in the 220.

Rush Niles, Les Radtke, Chub Grignon, Joe Gauthier and Stuie Schabow won second place in the broad jump, high and low hurdles, shot put, one half mile, and 100 yd. sprint respectively.

The Shawano 880 yd. relay composed of Meifert, Gauthier, Wastel and Schabow saved the day by prizing first place.

CONFERENCE:—May 19 at Neenah

Five records were shattered, and one was tied in the Neenah stadium. The Shawano athletes won the meet with a great fight against strong competitors.

Stuie Schabow set a new record of 10.1 seconds in the 100 yd. dash although he was not high point man. He lost by a score of 10-11 to Weinke, of Neenah. Grignon won the shot put, but was out-hurled in the discus.

STATE:—May 26 at Madison

Shawano placed third in the class "B" division. The Indians took a total of three seconds, one of which was in the relay, which for the first time counted in the point score.

Calendar

SEPTEMBER

- 10—School opens with no charge for admittance. More frosh than ever.
- 12—Our first pep meeting. The response is all right, but oh----the cheerleaders.
- 14—Class officers elected. Sophomores don't believe in Woman's Suffrage.
- 17—Mixer----lost and found freshmen get acquainted.
- 21—Pep meeting; volume great; in fact they're enlarging the school.
- 26—Band entertains in assembly. Two freshmen teach their fingers a few tricks.
- 28—Funny how we disagree with the referee's ruling at a football game.

OCTOBER

- 3—First movie, and did we get a kick out of watching the frosh during the comedy.
- 6—Beat Neenah by a big score. We're going to town this year in football, but we're coming back.
- 9—One of the faculty members would make a good professor—he's so absent minded at times.
- 12—Roessler falls and makes a big splash while gaily tripping up the aisle. Couldn't see whether she was a blonde or brunette.
- 17—Mr. Brooks entertains. Did those sausages link?
- 22—Mr. Baker starts the canaries on an opera.
- 23—Mr. Blissett exhibits a new suit. Did the teachers get a raise?
- 24—Philakean political convention. Largely attended and there were many enthusiastic responses. Initiation parties going strong.
- 27—Mr. Reetz pulls the pun of the year about someone's spoiling the show the night before homecoming.
- 28—Lecture on China. Models selected from Dramatic club, both model T's and model A's.
- 31—Teachers leave for convention. We starve until 2:30 today.

NOVEMBER

- 5—School opens and we're waiting for Thanksgiving vacation.
- 7—Freshmen orations given. Too much competition between orators and carpenters.
- 13—Limerick season opens. Does Mr. Coe blush these days?????
- 18—Glee Club elects officers. We win first B.B. game.
- 19—All school party by R.O.H. Dancing contest biggest attraction of the evening.
- 22—First big snowstorm. Now Santa won't have to come in a row boat.
- 23—Mr. Schmidt conducts fainting class after hearing the speaker on Tuberculosis.

DECEMBER

- 4—Mabel Riemer chosen as the Madonna for Christmas Masque.
- 10—Mr. Coe returns much to the delight of the seniors. Glee Club has Christmas party.
- 12—Beautiful selections presented by Mr. Felten and the Lutheran School Chorus.
- 18-19—Christmas Masque presented.
- 21—Football letters awarded. They'll be seen tomorrow on the girl friends. Theatre party given by Mr. Reetz.

JANUARY

- 4—Lost first B.B. game to Green Bay, but was non-conference. This breaks one of our resolutions.
- 9—School orchestra furnishes music for assembly dancing.
- 12—Low down school spirit makes Mr. Olson burn, but we don't blame him.
- 16—Metropolitan Jubilee Singers entertain assembly.
- 22—Ambassador quartet—result—rhythm in the first degree.
- 24—Semester exams—freshmen go around imitating that wise look of the seniors.
- 29—Famous men live once more. Extraordinary lyceum well-deserved its applause.

FEBRUARY

- 1—The old school spirit is back. Menasha listed among our captives in basketball.
- 5—We are defeated by Pulaski in debate. Band plays for assembly.
- 12—Senior girls have stunt in honor of Lincoln. We take Menasha.
- 13—Orphan Quartet supplies entertainment. This year all our lyceums were very good.

MARCH

- 1—Our perfect basketball record is broken when we lose our last basketball game.
- 4—The entire school mourns the accidental death of Pershing Oshkosh which occurred today.
- 7—New part of the main room is completed. We play hide-and-go-seek with our former desks.
- 11—Second band entertains in assembly.
- 14—Shawano starts out favorably in the tournament, which started today at Clintonville, by defeating Kewaunee.
- 15—Another victory when Shawano triumphs over Oconto.
- 16—Sturgeon Bay proves too much for us, and captures the Championship.
- 20—Freshmen-Sophomore Debate. Mr. Olson announces the decision wrong and gives the decision to the Frosh by mistake. (After all these years.)
- 25—Magician entertains in assembly. Duck and cards disappear!!
- 27—Extemporaneous speaking contest held today. Wally Smith places first.

APRIL

- 1—April Fool's day, and everyone bites at some foolish thing or other.
- 2—Oshkosh Normal's A Capella Choir entertained.
- 3—Mr. Caspar Wallrich speaks on automobile accidents.
- 4—"B" Squad and Coach Babington are awarded medals for winning the Championship in basketball at Neopit.

The Shawnee

- 5—Shawano's forensic group goes to Waukesha and captures honors.
- 12—Wisconsin Rapids sponsors track meet. Shawano proves strong competition.
- 14—The issuing of the report cards is responsible for that intelligent look on some faces.
- 17—Philakean entertains assembly with Mock Court.
- 18—Long needed Easter Vacation begins today!
- 20—We go to Green Bay for track meet.
- 23—Work starts again! Vacation was fun while it lasted.

MAY

- 1—Jane Dudley returns for another violin concert.
- 4—We contest in Shorewood High's track meet.
- 6—Our Senior Class Play proves a success.
- 11—District track meet at Wisconsin Rapids.
- 18—Neenah conference track meet.
- 20—Shawano sponsors another successful spring festival.
- 24—Fellows go to Madison for the State Track Meet.
- 31—Junior Prom.

JUNE

- 5—Commencement!
- 6—Another school year closes. To the lower classmen it means just a brief vacation until further school years, to our seniors a new era in life is beginning, but we shall always remember all the days spent in the Shawano High School.

SPELL OF JUNE

"You dance divinely!"

I blushed furiously but did not reply.

"Am I holding you to tightly?"

I smiled at him and snuggled closer, as we made a difficult turn. The arm around my waist squeezed me just the teeniest bit. I felt my face burning and dropped my head on his shoulder so he wouldn't see me blushing again.

"The floor isn't so smooth this evening," he offered, attempting to make conversation.

"It's good enough," I said, indifferently. "Oh, I'm sorry!" I had accidentally trod on his foot. "Did I hurt you?"

"That's all right; I didn't feel it," he replied, smiling gallantly. He looked around. "Quite a crowd here this evening, isn't there?"

"Yes," I answered. "And it seems that they're all looking at us."

"We are the center of attraction. We should worry," he said reassuringly. "Don't mind them in the least."

"Oh, I don't" I said hurriedly. Somebody thrust us apart.

"Hey, listen!" the referee scowled. "If you two punks don't quit stallin' and mix it up, I'm gonna call this fight off; d'ya hear?"

At a school a coach wanted the smartest boy in school for his quarterback. So after the teachers had selected the smartest boy and sent him to the coach, the coach gave him instructions to use in the next game. On the first down he was to try an end run, on the second down he was to use a line plunge, and on the third down he was to punt. So when the game started the quarterback followed instructions. He made 20 yards on the first play, 10 yards on the second play and kicked on the third!

WHAT WOULD HAPPEN IF:

There was no boo-ing at a basketball game?
Tim Anderson's hair turned black?
There was no desk slamming in the main room?
The prom king didn't get the rush? (No pun)
Eddit Achten and Orve Teetzen got to English class in time?
We didn't skate down the center aisle?
Raymond Jorgenson wouldn't blush?
We didn't shoot tin foil during our study periods?
Elizabeth GruWell got thin?
The freshmen stayed as dumb as they were in the fall?
The three cheerleaders grew?
Clara Scheil forgot her ear-rings.
Arly Paizer caught up with the times.
Doris Dallman got fat.
Eggs Mahl came to school two days in succession.

SHAWANO CANNING COMPANY

That man won't be able to attend any more shows. He's a vegetarian, and at the last one he had to sit with his back to the stage so he wouldn't have to look at a ham.

People think she's a shoemaker's daughter because she is always going out with a heel.

The more you study the more you know,
The more you know the more you forget,
The more you forget the less you know,
The less you know the less you forget,
The less you forget the more you know
So why study?

Ella Froelich: "Your uncle has a very long nose.
Anna Kriefall: "Yes, long noses run in our family."

"Whenever I wake up in the morning, my alarm clock is there with bells on."

Fish have no method of communication. They never respond to the lines we drop them.
